Carol and Paul Emmons

Carol Emmons was born in Stevens Point, Wisconsin in 1953. She is a practicing artist and professor at the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay. To complete her permanent installation at UW-Milwaukee’s School of Architecture and Urban Planning, she collaborated with her brother Paul Emmons, a practicing architect and the coordinator of the Ph.D program in architecture at Virginia Tech.

- Her work is prevalent throughout Wisconsin and has earned her international acclaim
- Sculptural work and installation art that is extremely site specific, created in overarching series
- Sees art as a means of articulating human experience

Carol Emmons:
1953 – Born in Stevens Point, Wisconsin
1975 – Received Bachelors of Science in Art and Philosophy from UW-Stevens Point
1977 – Received BFA in Art (Drawing and Painting) from UW-Milwaukee
1980 – Received MFA in Art (Painting and Sculpture) from UW-Milwaukee

Paul Emmons:
1986 – Received a Master of Architecture degree from the University of Minnesota
2003 – Received a Ph.D in Architecture from the University of Pennsylvania